“ Although I have never met the family I was sorry to read you had death in your family. Those we love are always with us Their laughter and their wisdom, their advice and thoughtfulness are gifts of love that are ours to keep.. May the tender mercy that God has always shown be with you now so you will know that you are not alone and may the prayers of others help in some small way to bring you strength and comfort and courage each day. Soon He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces Isaiah 25:8

“ What a terrific lady,who was allways helping with what ever needed to be done and boy could she cook.It was allways a pleasure to go to her house when we were younger and she was allways happy to see us kids at least I think she was.And what a good friend to have. May she rest in peace.
