“ Dear granny we almost got to see you one last time. shauna and kevin made a special snow globe for you, you would have loved it, as you did with everything we made for you. As far back as i can remember you and gramps were always there with us, taking us to goshen, miami, daytona, to the airport just sitting watching the planes we liked surfside the best showing us how to live life with joy and happiness as you did everyday of your life. i am so blessed my children had the chance to know you and to enjoy you as much as i did when i was growing up. did you ever cheat at "31" you can tell me, you always seemed to win. thank you for all the wonderful days you shared with us you made my life complete and with out you and gramps i would not have the wonderful mother i have today. i love you and will miss you terrible and you will always be in my heart.
