“ I knew Francis at Brittany Farms/Aurora. Every time I would go to visit my mother-in-law, Francis would be there with a big smile. She would tell me how the stocks were doing or read me an article that caught her interest. When we went to the gathering room for song time, she would sing, loud and proud. Sometimes at dinner, she would sing "Hello, My Baby, Hello My Honey, Hello My Ragtime Gal" She was a hoot! I was one of her many "ketchup" connections! "How can you have a "hamburg" without ketchup!" she would tell us. She was a high spirited, happy lady til the end. I feel blessed for having met her. My Love and Smiles to you, Joyful Lady. “ We will miss that smile and my favorite of all the laughs. To sweet Aunt Franny we know God has a special place for you.
