“ To the Villara family,
We have never met, but your father was a longtime friend of mine, from high school and after. I was very saddened to hear of his passing, even though I was aware of his health. I live out of state, but I wanted to extend my sympathy and say what a great and loyal friend he was. Frank, rest in peace.
Your long time friend,
Sebby Amenta

Thank you so very much for reaching out. Believe it or not every so often my dad would mention you in his musings about the good old days. In his mind you were his brother. So I hope that gives you some comfort.
