“ Uncle Frank you were a devoted husband to my Aunt Ruth, brother-in-law to my father Paul and most of all uncle to myself and great-uncle to my children! You brought much insight, love and kindness to us and others you have touched along the way! I will cherish fond memories of woodwork lessons and gardening in your yard. May you now join loved ones, but know when it thunders next...a little piece of my heart knows heaven gained a new bowler that made a strike! I will forever will keep you close in my heart and memories
