

Frederick Eugene Black

May 9, 2001

Frederick E. Black

Frederick Eugene Black, 82, of St. Petersburg, Florida, died Wednesday May 9, 2001 at his home. Born in Brooksville, Maine, he lived in Haddam Neck, New Britain, and Middletown before moving to St. Petersburg. Mr. Black was a World War II veteran of both the U.S. Army and the Merchant Marines. He retired in 1984 as a steel draftsman for Berlin Steel in Berlin. He was a member of Friends of Bill W.

Survivors include Hattie Gay; a son, Fred Black, Jr. and his wife Sharon of Palm Coast, Florida; 4 daughters, Joann Phelps and her husband John of Windsor; Sharon Denison and her husband Robert of Middletown; Laura Tyler of Lake Panasoffkee, Florida, and Sherry Reyes of Cromwell; a sister, Doris Grafton of El Cajon, California; 9 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.

A Memorial Service will be held Saturday June 9, 2001 1:00 PM at First Church of Christ, Congregational, 830 Corbin Avenue, New Britain, 06052.

There are no calling hours. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

AS

“ Our deepest sympathy to you in your time of loss.

Alan & Marlene Sachs - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ *So many great memories of our times spent in Haddam Neck. I think of all of you often as we live in your old house. Your dad was certainly one of Haddam Neck's finest. We will be thinking of you today. Please feel free to stop by whenever you are in the Neck.
John Hall and family*

John Hall - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

CL

“ Gay and Family,

Our deepest sympathies. Fred was a great man, we will never forget his humor and wisdom.

*Our thoughts are with you.
One day at a time!*

*Take Care
Carolyn & Chris*

Christopher & Carolyn Lee - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ To a dear friend who will be greatly missed. I shall always remember his warm smile, friendly handshake, and our many discussions before and after meetings. The Good Lord blessed me when he brought Fred into my life.

Lew Compson

Joan & Lew Compson - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM