“ My mom became a resident of Arbor Rose in May 2009. She had lived alone for nearly 20 years after my father passed away and our family prayed that she would be able to adjust and make some friends in her new life at an assisted living facility. Those prayers were answered when she met Gemma. Perhaps it was their Italian heritage that brought them together but it was Gemma's warmth and beautiful spirit that bonded them. They shared meals and life stories together at Arbor Rose. Mom missed Gemma when she was moved to the Jerome Home but as fate would have it mom fell and also ended up at the Jerome home. She reunited with Gemma as their rooms were near each other and they shared meals every day at the Jerome Home dining room. Thank you Gemma for being on my mom's path and helping her feel welcomed in her new home. We will miss you but these words give us comfort.....

Miss ME - But Let Me Go
When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room-
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan -
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely or sick of heart,
Go to the Friend we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, But let me go.
