“ No more pain No more sorrow, Just none existence. Mark Twain said.” “I do not fear death. I had been dead for billions and billions of years before I was born, and had not suffered the slightest inconvenience from it.” And that is the peace of it.

“ Very sorry to read of George's passing. I also graduated high school in 1944 and remember him from several classes. We were not close buddies, but we got along well and many occasions. He was a very warm and friendly person. I am sure he will be missed by many. Sincerely, Herbert Rubenstein

“ I was a teenager, working part time at Sage Allen at WestFarms in the mid to late 70's, and Mr. Kumm was the store manager. I remember him as a kind and caring man who always had a smile and a good word to say to his employees. My condolences to his family.

“ I loved George like an uncle, he was my next-door neighbor for 54 years, a gentle, beautiful, classy man. I moved back to Georgia but have kept in touch with him on a regular basis and will miss talking with him. He will be missed by a lot of people!
