“ Uncle George "Cork" Nappi was such a wonderful, fun, and loving uncle. I have so many incredible memories of Uncle Cork, Aunt Dorothy, Judy, and Georgie. While growing up, Uncle Cork shared his love of music with cousin Judy and with his sweet wife, Aunt Dorothy. I can remember many beautiful times playing the piano at their house while Uncle Cork played the guitar and mandolin. I also have many great memories of my brother and I playing for hours on end with Georgie at family gatherings. Other great memories involve directing my Aunt and Uncle's church choir on an interim basis. My Uncle, Aunt, and Cousins always treated us with so much love and interest whenever we were able to visit for holidays or family reunions. I will never forget these wonderful times together or the incredible Magson family support and love throughout my life. My deepest condolences are with our dear Nappi family. Nancy and I wish we could be with you at this time, but Nancy is not well enough to travel or to be left alone for a long period of time. We love you!
