“ To George's Family: I was not only saddened but shocked to see George's picture when I opened the paper this morning. George was not only a client but a good friend. I will definitely miss his dry sense of humor and many jokes that I think he thought were funny!! Most of all, I will miss his phone calls. I spoke to George the week of Christmas and he sounded happy and healthy and we made plans to go out to dinner at Ficara's, where else. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. George spoke very highly and proudly of his family and especially his grandchildren. May all the wonderful memories of Him be a source of comfort to all of you.

“ The best I can figure George and I along with my sister Suzanne Larson are second cousins. Our dad, Michael Simonides 11 and Georges dad Michael Simonides were cousins. George was a good ole boy and I'll miss our weekly Emails back and forth. Mostly jokes but I tried to keep him up on church and family news.. He'll be missed.

“ We're so sad to learn of Uncle George's passing, but he has left us with with an abundance of wonderful memories. He had a sharp wit, and keen mind, and a gift for sharing interesting stories from his life, due to his extensive interest in so many different subjects. He was a special gift to our extended family. May these happy memories never fade.
