“ My sympathies to all. George embodied the love of life and real values that characterize our extended family. I remember the fun times with him and all the others on the Hanson farm, at get-togethers in new Britain, at aunts' and uncles' homes as well as at ours. He is gone but memories of him will remain.

“ George was a great cousin. Always made me laugh. Spanked the h-- out of me on my 16th birthday so I couldn't really sit down for two days. Remember the time my famiy was out driving on a weekend and Dad spotted a Navy fellow hitchhiking along the highway. Dad stopped to pick him up and imagine our surprise to find it was George trying to get home on leave. Had a lot of laughs that time also.

He was much loved and will be missed.
