“ Dear Patrick & Tommy,
I was very sad to hear that your Mom had passed away. She was my favorite in-law in the Sandelli family. Uncle Billy and I were always very fond of her because she was so easy going and down to earth, no matter what. I know he will be very happy to see her on the other side.
My Deepest Sympathy,
Auntie Janet

“ Dear Patrick & Tommy,
I cried when I heard the news about your Mom, not just because her passing represented the end of an era for the Sandelli family, but because she was such a nice person and beloved aunt. By her example, I learned what it meant to be a genuine and sincere person. Your Mom exuded warmth and was so comfortable to be around - a rare and precious gift. I regret losing touch with her after she moved from Bassett St. You both have my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy. RIP Auntie Gloria.
Love, Wendy
