“ *Dear Donna,
My brother, John, saw your dear mother's obituary in the Herald and showed it to me today. My sincere condolences to you and your entire family. Knowing her as a youngster I always knew she was a nice lady, but I certainly never realized what a truly decent, accomplished and compassionate person she was. May her soul Rest In Peace.*

“ God Bless you, Gloria! From the moment I met her, zipping around the floors of the Rocky Hill State of Connecticut Veterans Home & Hospital on the evening shift back in 1981, I knew she was special! Such caring , compassion for her Veterans. Then, after Gloria retired, who came to work with us... no other than Dee, Gloria's daughter! Gloria was also an incredible Mother, as evidenced by the loving children she raised, and were there together as she departed this realm. My deepest sympathy to all whom loved Gloria and God Bless each one of you. Tracy M
