“ Dear Shirley, you and Gordy were always special to us and we so loved seeing you both when we would come to Southington to visit Uncle Arnie and Aunt Lenore before and after we moved to Texas. I always thought it was so neat that you all lived next door to each other and were best friends. Please know that you and your family are in our hearts and prayers. Love and God bless, John and Nancy

“ I will always remember Gordy as a joyful man. He always had a smile, and a story, and a positive comment. I have enjoyed many stories that Roger has told over the years of the "logging" and construction or deconstruction projects, and the escapades that he has relished having with this very special man. Our sincerest sympathy Marlin's and mine is extended to all who loved him.

“ Our condolences to Karen, Kristin, Mrs. Raymond and the family. Mr. Raymond must have been a very special person because those around him openly expressed their admiration and love for him all the time. The love I saw in Mrs. Raymond's eyes and the caring and love I saw in his eyes when we saw them up at the cabin was sincere and real. Karen and Roger always spoke with admiration about how intelligent "Gordy" was - I think I heard genius several times.
May God help you through this time and take Mr. Raymond into his arms.

“ 11/26/1919 - 12/09/2008.
The above line gives the beginning of Gordon's life and the end. But it is that small dash between those dates that signifies his life. It represents all the time he spent alive on Earth. What he has done. The love he gave out and received. People he touched. Work he accomplished. Joys and sorrows from his own childhood to watching his grandchildren growing up. That small little line contains all the details that the two dates cannot begin to describe. Mr. Raymond spent his dash well.
