“ I remember the many good times we had wen both our families got together. They were very happy times. My mother felt really bad that she wasn't there for the funeral but now she is able again since she just joined him.

“ Harold lit up my day!! I could be having the worst day and a few minutes with Harold made everything better. He made my best days happier! I miss his presence on Meadow View and I miss his smile in my heart.

Please accept my deepest sympathies!
