Helen Haffey obituary to appear Tuesday March 6, 2012

Helen Potts Haffey, 93, of Cromwell, widow of the late Wilton S. Haffey Sr., passed away Saturday March 3, 2012 at Middlesex Hospital in Middletown. A native and longtime New Britain resident, graduate of New Britain High School, Class of 1937, she moved to Cromwell in 1996. She was a 77 year member of South Church in New Britain; was an active member of the New Britain Seniors where she taught knitting; and volunteered in Chaplain Service at Covenant Village.

Surviving is a son, Wilton S. Haffey, Jr. of Utica, NY; three daughters, Ellen Nicholson and her husband Thomas Nicholson Jr. of Bridgeport; Marion Haffey of Tampa Bay, FL; and Joan Haffey of Brooklyn, CT; a granddaughter, Laurie A. Nicholson of North Port, FL; several nieces and nephews. Besides her husband Wilton S. Haffey Sr., she was predeceased by a brother, Joseph Potts, Jr.; and six sisters, Ethel Getz, Marjorie Agne, Dorothy McCann, Eleanor Eckman, Kathryn Batogowski, and Elizabeth Grant.

Funeral services will be held Monday March 12th 11 AM in the Erwin Chapel of South Church, 90 Main Street, New Britain, CT 06051. Burial will be at the convenience of the family in Rose Hill Memorial Park. There are no calling hours. Helen's family wishes to express their sincere thanks and gratitude for the care and support of the Pilgrim Manor of Covenant Village, Middlesex Hospital and the staff of Hospice at the Hospital. Memorial donations may be made to South Church or to the Benevolent Fund of Covenant Village of Cromwell, 52 Missionary Road, Cromwell, CT 06416. “ *To Ellen, Wilton, Marion and Joan
I am sorry that distance kept Howard and me from attending the services. Judy said they were lovely. You have our deepest sympathy. Saddly, it is the passing of a generation.*
