

Helen Haleks Manson

January 15, 1915 - August 18, 2008

Helen Haleks Manson, 93, formerly of New Britain, died Monday August 18, 2008 in Newport, Rhode Island. Born in New Britain, Helen is the widow of Arthur J. Manson who passed away in 1991. Helen was employed at the Fafnir bearing Company for 10 years and was a homemaker for many years to her family. She was also a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in New Britain and was a part of the Ladies Aid Society in the church. Helen also spent time with the New Britain Senior Citizens group.

Helen is survived by a daughter Gail Kobus and her husband Joseph of Jacksonville, FL; a brother John Haleks of Michigan; three grandchildren, Dawne Gandy of Rhode Island, Mark Donle of New York, and Rick Donle of East Hampton; two great grandchildren and two nephews. Helen leaves many friends behind at the School One apartments on Bassett Street in New Britain. Besides her husband Arthur, Helen is predeceased by a daughter Joanne Donle.

A funeral service will be held 1 PM Wednesday August 20, 2008 at Carlson Funeral Home 45 Franklin Square New Britain, CT 06051 followed by burial in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain. There are no calling hours. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the St. Matthew's Church 99 Franklin Square New Britain, CT 06051. Please share a memory or note of sympathy with Helen's family by "clicking" GUESTBOOK at the bottom of the page.