

Herman W. Johanns

July 19, 1916 - March 14, 2004

Herman W. Johanns, 87, of New Britain, passed away after a brief illness surrounded by his loving family at Middlesex Health Care Center in Middletown. Born in New Britain, Herman lived in Kensington and moved to New Britain where he resided for over 60 years. He was employed at Goss & DeLeeuw Machine Company in Kensington for over 40 years until his retirement in 1973. He was also a part of the State Police Motorcycle Division. Herman was a member of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in New Britain and was a permanent fixture at Moody School and Palmer Field in Middletown where he enjoyed watching his grandsons play little league baseball games.

Surviving is a daughter, Judith E. Harvey and her husband Bruce of Middletown; five grandchildren, Jillene Mann, Rick Youmans, Ron Youmans, Tom Johanns, and Katie Pascal; seven great grandchildren; several nieces and nephews; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Alex Mary Johanns. Herman was predeceased by his wife Mary Carbone Johanns, who died in 1994; a son, Gary E. Johanns; a grandson, Brian Johanns; two brothers and three sisters. Funeral services will be held Wednesday 10 AM at First Lutheran Church, 77 Franklin Square, New Britain. Burial will be in Maple Cemetery, Berlin. Calling hours will be held Tuesday 4 to 7 PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. Memorial donations may be made to St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 295 Arch Street, New Britain, CT 06051. Please share a memory of Herman with his family on our online guestbook by clicking

“ *Ma J. & Family,
I am sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I'm sorry I couldn't be there tonight, Raianne had a orthodontist appointment. Grandpa was a wonderful man.*

Love, Connie
