“ I will remember Dell for treating me like one of the family, no matter how much trouble Gary and I would get into.

When I was about three or four, I got lost about a block away from their home across from Smalley School. When Dell found me, instead of screaming at me for getting lost, she knelt down and hugged me. And she hollered at Gary for leaving me to take a shortcut home. You have to love a woman like that.

You have my family's sincerest sympathies.
