

Jacqueline Chabot Riccio

November 2, 1941 - August 21, 2008

Jacqueline "Jackie" Chabot Riccio, 66, of New Britain, wife of James Riccio, passed away Thursday August 21, 2008 at the Hospital of Central CT in New Britain. Born in Hartford, daughter of the late George and Olivia DeChamplain Chabot, she was a former Bristol and Newington resident until moving to New Britain in 1973. A graduate of Hartford Public High School, Jackie managed the Dilly Dally Deli in New Britain and also managed the kitchen of the former Penny Corner Pub in Newington. Jackie was known for her beautiful handwriting. She could be seen walking her dog "Mr. Blackie" in the evenings. She also enjoyed going to the Cape in the fall and making gourmet meals for her husband every night.

Besides her husband James, she leaves three sons, Thomas Given and his wife Karyl of Plainville; Mark Given and his wife Diane of Rocky Hill; and Vincent Given of Beacon Falls; a brother, Joseph Chabot of Huntingdon, Tennessee; three sisters, Mary Ann Lavalley of New Britain; Elaine Angier of Supply, N.C.; and Yvonne Dombrowski and her husband Edward of Newington; and nine grandchildren. She was predeceased by a brother, George Chabot and two sisters, Rita Darcy and "Claire" Koziba.

Funeral services will be held Monday 11 AM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. Burial will be private and at the convenience of the family. Calling hours will be held Sunday 5 to 8 PM at Carlson Funeral Home. Donations may be made to the George Bray Cancer Center or the Joslin Clinic Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, both c/o Hospital of Central CT, 100 Grand Street, New Britain, CT 06051. Please share a memory or note of sympathy by "clicking" GUESTBOOK at the bottom of the page.

“ Jim,
I,m so sorry to hear that Jacqueline passed.I know that you two were good pals as well as good marriage partners.
Come down this way, if you can, and do some fishing at Harkmess.
Love,
Gerry
