

James "Jim" Carey

April 4, 1955 - April 14, 2017

James "Jim" Carey, 62, of East Hampton, passed away Friday (April 14, 2017) at Hartford Hospital. He was predeceased by his loving wife Carol Carey, his parents Robert and Diane (Walters) Condon, and his cousin Michael Bonati. Born in New York City, he was a former Berlin resident, moving to East Hampton in 1999. A graduate of Farmington High School, class of 1973, he attended Concordia College and Central Connecticut State College (CCSC), where he was very active in the Theatre Department. Jim was The department head of the East Hampton Planning, Zoning, and Building Department, where he worked for 30 years, retiring in 2015. Although he received many job offers over the years he could never bring himself to leave East Hampton. Jim had a love for photography; was an avid fly fisherman and Green Bay Packers fan.

Surviving is his sister, Robin Condon of Farmington; an Aunt, Naomi Bonati and her husband Richard of Clinton; an uncle, Glenn Walters and his wife Jennifer of Albuquerque, NM; as well as several cousins including Laura and Billy Cariati of Westbrook; Lisa and Ray Palumbo of Madison.

A memorial service will be held Sunday (April 30, 2017) 4 PM at Carlson Funeral Home 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. “ To Jim's family and friends, Jim didn't let the authority of his position go to his head. He let people try to get things done. While at the same time finding some humor in the importance of it all. He was an asset to the little town of East Hampton. R.I.P. Jim , Howie Schwager

“ To Jim's family and friends: I had the privilege of working for many years with Jim in his professional capacity with the Town of East Hampton. He truly was among the smartest, funniest, most down-to-earth, practical people I have ever known...and all those characteristics don't often come together in one personality. Rest now in peace, Jim. I will forever miss your wit and warmth. Jean D'Aquila
