“ My deepest condolences to the Scalise and Carlson family, as well as all friends and extended family. I met Jim 20 years ago when he came to work for me at Crowley Chevrolet in West Hartford . He was a hard worker and a lot of fun to have around the shop. I developed a strong friendship with him over the next several years, we hung out and he also went on vacation with my friends and I to a lake house in New Hampshire. It was probably one of the funnest weeks I've ever had on vacation! Between Jim's sharp wit and all the great fishing and boating, everyone had a blast! I will always remember him as a highly intelligent, fun and fiercely loyal person. Rest in peace buddy, I think about you often.

“ Condolences to the entire Scalise family,especially Jimmy Sr. and John,my friends.Jimmy,we now both belong to a very unfortunate fraternity,the loss of a son.For you though,your namesake,your first born. I truly feel your pain and hurt with you.The only solace in his loss is that he is with God now and his mother. You and I must continue on until we are called and we will.God bless. Gene

“ Everyone's journey is different. Sometimes it's easy, and sometimes not so much. But no matter how our journey plays out we always carry special people in our hearts. I remember Jimmy as our paperboy, delivering every day. Growing up through high school and on to college, traveling different paths. Jim will be in our memories -a son, brother, neighbor and friend, always in our hearts. Keeping the Scalise's and Carlsons in our hearts
