“ My family and I will always miss jim he was a great man. Our family goes way back he was a friend of my grandfather Ralph Sr and the ice house gang and my father Ralph Jr. in 1992 I moved in the house next door to jimmy. when my son was born in 1997 he became a great friend to my son David Jr. David and I will miss him so much. David Lost his grandfather last year. when he found out about Jimmy he really took it hard we were not home last week so we didn't get to pay our respects. Jimmy always had his tomato garden. It was big and Jimmy didn't like tomatos that much. I ate a lot of tomatos the years I lived next door. He will be missed by all that have known him over the years. thanks for the good times and stories of days past.

“ Jimmie was a part of our family for approximately 15 years. When Rita first introduce us to Jimmie they were both a nervous reck. They were like a couple of kids with excitement. He was such a gentleman we could easily understand why mom fell in love with him. Norm, I and our kids enjoyed having Jim with us during the holidays and his and mom's birthdays. Whenever we would visit with mom, Jim would always come over around 7pm and we would all watch Jopardy and Wheel of Fortune. When 8 o'clock rolled around Jimmie would immediately put on the wrestling match that was their routine. That and of course playing cards. If we happened to get to the house after Jim got there they would start their card game. As soon as we got settled in they would put their game on hold and she would proceed to tell us that he always wins and he never lets her win. Jimmie would smile and say nothing and Norm and I would tell her, he's not suppose to let you win, you need to strategize and beat him fair and square that's why they call it a game. Jim then told us that it's easy winning when she falls asleep during the game. ;o

Jimmie will be missed greatly by our whole family. We are terrible sorry we couldn't make it to the service, medical problems, however Jimmie will always be in our hearts.

*With great love,
Jacky & Norman Ravagnani and family*
