

Jessica Lynn Beauchesne

September 30, 1979 - January 14, 2026

Jessica Lynn (Mowel) Beauchesne, age 46, of Newington, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 14th. She was a devoted mother, cherished daughter, loving grandmother, and friend to many. Her life was filled with love, laughter, and the joy she shared with all who knew her.

Born on September 30th, 1979, Jessica was the daughter of Colleen G. Miller and Alan Mowel.

Jessica had a passion for cooking and baking for others, often saying that food was her love language. Her intense desire to learn led her to earn a degree in mortuary science and fueled her dedication as a senior quality engineer. She had a gift for making people laugh, and anyone who knew her likely has at least one memory that brings a belly laugh to mind. She also prided herself on finding the perfect gifts for birthdays and holidays, always making sure that her loved ones received something meaningful and useful.

She is remembered with love by her children, Makayla Field and husband Robert Field, Aidan Mowel, and Paisley King; her grandsons, Bronx and Rhys; and her boyfriend, Bruce King, as well as many friends and extended family who were touched by her humor and kindness.

Her friends and family will remember her quick wit, laughter, persistence, and unwavering dedication, as well as the countless ways she made life brighter for those around her.

A celebration of her life will be held Saturday February 7, 2026 from 3PM-5PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square New Britain, where those who loved her can gather to honor her memory. “ I can't believe i lost my little sis. I can remember when I taught her how to go grocery shopping. I grabbed grocery bags from my apartment put her in the car and we drove to my mom house. I handed Jessica bags and said grab everything to make spaghetti. I'll get the meats for my next meal planned. She laughed and we cracked up about that for years. Our love never changed kids, distance in states same love.
