“ Dear Aunty Joanie,
You were always there for me, to make me happy, to make me laugh and to make my day 100 percent better!!! I have always wanted to sleep over your house, and to always be with you. But now, I know that you will always be right beside me. Once my mom told Nick and I, it felt like my whole entire life was going to end. But then Nick said, "I bet Aunty Joanie is looking down on us right now"!!!! Then I felt your love! I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU AUNTY JOANIE!

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences go to the family of Joan Abraham, It would not seem right that death could actually take away someone we love. And when it does the thought of not being able to be near them again it seem very difficult. And all the good things people say do not take that pain away. I know because when my mother died I experienced that but what helped to ease some of the pain was knowing the bibles promise at Revelation 21:3&4 about our loved ones. May that also bring you comfort.

“ To Joanie's family and Friends:

Joanie brought forth the true beauty in a person. Her kindness and generosity to the ones she loved and even strangers will never be forgotten. She was one of most sweetest and loving people I've ever met. The world may have lost a wonderful person, but Heaven has truly gained an angel. I'll miss you Joanie.
