

John Fred Adamson

December 18, 1932 - July 28, 2016

Called to his eternal reward, John Fred Adamson, passed away on Thursday July 28, 2016. He died with his entire devoted family by his side at New Britain General Hospital, where he worked his entire life for over 45 years, retiring in 1995 and died at the age of 83. John attended Vance School and Central Junior High in New Britain and graduated from Berlin High in 1950. He was the last remaining charter member of the Credit Union at NBGH which consisted of 25 members. He was also elected to be a Corporator of the hospital. He belonged to a bowling team at NBGH for many years. John was a lifelong member of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in New Britain, where he met the love of his life, Lorraine Buchholz and they were married in 1952. He was raised by his mother, the late Marie Henne Adamson Choate. John is survived by his devoted loving wife Lorraine of 64 years and his devoted children, Richard John Adamson and his granddaughter Sarah Jessie Adamson of Plainville; his daughter, Nancy Lee Boucher, son-in-law Paul Robert Boucher of Plainville and his grandson Marc Adam Boucher of Keene, New Hampshire; and his son Scott William Adamson of Plainville, who will miss him dearly. John was involved with Drum Corps. International with all three children all playing in the Corps. Following Corps long after they no longer belonged. Weekends in Allentown, PA were a must in August and the 3rd Saturday in July was reserved for the Deep River Ancient Fife and Drum Bugle Corp Parade and tattoo in Deep River. John was an avid UConn girls and boys basketball teams fan as well as the NY Yankees and WNBA teams especially if a UConn member played and the Connecticut Sun basketball team.

We want to thank all the nurses, doctors and aides on CCU North for the wonderful caring care that they gave him, especially Michael Palmucci, who went that extra mile each and every day. I also want to thank my dearest friends, Richard DeMay and Joseph Kintschi who were always there for me. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Funeral Services are Tuesday 11 AM at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, 295 Arch Street, New Britain, CT 06051. Burial will follow in Fairview Cemetery. Calling hours are Monday 5 to 8 PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square New Britain. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Please share a memory or note of sympathy by "clicking" SEND CONDOLENCES at the bottom of the page.

Tribute Wall

LA

“ Dear, I loved you with all heart and there you will always be. Till we meet again and be beside you once more.
Your loving wife

Lorraine H. Adamson - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

FW

“ Our sympathies to the whole Adamson Family. John was a good friend and will be missed by all. Sweet Lorraine, your love and devotion to John kept him going.
Love,
Frank, Elfriede & Irma

Frank & Elfriede Wilson - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

CR

“ I will always remember "Cuz" John especially how easy he made people laugh with his great sense of humor,he made everyone around him smile. Some of the best memories that I cherish the most are from the Good Friday Hike with my Dad & Cuz John. He will be missed by many...my prayers go out to all those who loved him and will miss him, especially his family. Love Carl

Carl Rohrberg - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM