

John "Jack" Schroeder

October 19, 1958 - April 1, 2003

John "Jack" Schroeder, 44, of New Britain, died Tuesday April 1, 2003 at New Britain General Hospital. A native and lifelong New Britain resident, he was son of Richard and Audrey Glabau Schroeder of New Britain. Jack attended E.C. Goodwin Technical School and was a chef at Indian Hill Country Club, Newington for the past year. Previously he was a chef at several other central Connecticut restaurants. He was a former member of St. Johns Lutheran Church in New Britain.

Besides his parents, he leaves a son, Jason Schroeder of Plainville; a brother, Donald Schroeder and his wife Judi of Fort Myers, FL; 2 sisters, Cathy Stepina and her husband Floyd of New Britain; and Denise Tinnirella and her husband Terence of Wethersfield; 3 nephews, Jeff Stepina of Bristol, Nicholas and Michael Tinnirella of Wethersfield; and 2 nieces, Mandy Schroeder of Lake Placid New York and a very special niece Jodi Stepina of New Britain. Funeral services are Friday 2 PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. Calling hours are Thursday evening 5 to 8 PM. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to New Britain General Hospital ICU Unit, 100 Grand Street New Britain, CT 06051. Please share a memory of Jack with his family on our online guestbook by clicking "sign memorial guestbook" at the top of the page.

“ I am shocked and deeply saddened to hear of Jack's passing. I first met Jack when we were both 7 years old. Even though we almost never attended the same schools, we managed to stay good friends through high school.

Jack was always generous and kind hearted. He had a great jump shot and ran like the wind. He was a great chef and taught me a lot about cooking when I was younger.

And we had a lot of fun. I am sorry we lost touch over the years. I will miss him, but I will never forget him.

Kraz.
