“ To my Aunt Tessie and cousins, Mary, John and Olivia, it's sad to see the passing of another of our great, fun Uncles. Growing up next door, there was daily contact with my Aunt and Uncle. There are so many good memories. Even though Bruce and I cannot be at the funeral, we have you in our thoughts and prayers. I know his last few years were tough on everyone but now he can rest peacefully and crack as many of his corny jokes as he wants ...forever.

“ Dear Teresa and the rest of the Taylor Family,
Mary Ellen and I send our condolences over Major Taylor's passing. I was very fortunate to have met your husband in '65' on the first day in the SP. He was the most skilled instructor at the Academy in Bethany. He made boring subjects interesting and had a wit like Benny & Hope. The 69TT greatly appreciated his guidance on the way to becoming troopers. I was to be the biggest benefactor. In '84' the JET came upstairs at HQ and helped me as the XO. Working together, John and I tackled all the problems right through the eighties and I appreciated every single day of his presence. He was a trooper who certainly made a difference and I was honored to serve alongside of him and be his friend. I know the last years of his life were difficult and I hope he has finally found the peace he earned and deserves. May he Rest In Peace.

“ John was always a gentleman who carried himself with quiet pride. I was among many who had respect for him. He leaves behind for many fond memories of his presence in CSP. May his family also find peace in his memories. God speed John, with that little smile that was always you.

“ To the Taylor family, please accept our deepest sympathy. I have such fond memories of Mr. Taylor (he'll always be Mr. Taylor to me). When he would do the "talking car" for Johnny, going to the firing range, helping Mary and I make terrariums, it all seems like yesterday. He was a quiet person and had the most dry, clever wit. He was a very special person. Our thoughts are with you.

John was a corporal at the academy in Bethany in 1968. He had the driest sence of humor. He was a great trooper. I can still remember his jokes. May he rest in peace.

To the entire Taylor family, Dennis and I extend our most sincere sympathies. Over the years of friendship we have come to know Mr Taylor and enjoyed his humor and wisdom. May he find the peace and serenity he so deserves.
