“ I knew Jordann for over 2 years and always looked forward to see what she was up to next. She had a fantastic memory for things and thought it was silly that since i couldn't remember her dog's name awhile back and so i called her dog (or any dog) "FIFI" (I even sometimes called her cat that too). This is the smile i will always remember as she was so beautiful. She had an active imagination and so didn't know what story or riddle she would come up with as they were all different. She loved school and didn't staying home when she was sick. She will always be a special part of my life. Cheryl D.

“ Jordann..... sweet girl.... you started out as " the other child" that we were anxious to meet. It didn't take long at all for you and Oliver to become the best of friends. The friendship the two of you shared so innocent so genuine. You were both always so worried about the others health. Your forever friendship was much to short but the wonderful memories and love you both shared will live in my heart forever!!! Sleep with the angels sweetie!!!!
