

Joseph Procko, Jr.

March 25, 1931 - February 15, 2006

Joseph Procko, Jr., 74, died on Wednesday February 15, 2006 at Plainville Health Care Center surrounded by his loved after a long illness. He was born on March 25, 1931 in New Britain. He was employed by Macristy Industries for 25 years and the United Postal Services until his retirement in 1996. Joseph is an Army veteran of the Korean War and a member of the VFW in Plainville. He was a member of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in New Britain; and was a loving and devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He supported his family through a lifetime of happiness.

He is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Catherine Stabert, two daughters, Wendy Procko Irving of Plainville; and Shelly Procko Strileckis and her husband Andy of Sudbury, MA; four cherished grandchildren, Heather Irving, Nicholas Irving, Alina Strileckis and Elizabeth Strileckis; his brother and sister-in-law, Charles and Florence Procko; and many loving nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents, Joseph and Mary Yawin Procko and a brother, Robert Procko.

A celebration of his life will be held Saturday 10 AM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery. Calling hours will be held Friday 4 to 7 PM and Saturday one hour prior to the service from 9 to 10 AM at Carlson Funeral Home. Joseph's family wishes to thank the staff and residents at Plainville Health Care Center, especially the Annex

Wing, for all the compassion and support they have provided Joe and his family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Disease Association, 279 New Britain Road, Kensington, CT 06037.
