“ Joe was a great caregiver to his loved ones, and had a great sense of humor. He loved to entertain us with his "stupid jokes," to quote Mom. He enjoyed playing the lottery and often gave us money to try out luck. Mom was somewhat lucky and enjoyed this bit of fun. Joe was a wonderful husband to Mom and she loved him very much. The house is very quiet without Joe. He will be missed. It is time for him to rest and let God take care of him.

“ Joe was a wonderful husband to my grandmother and made her very happy. I know he left this earth knowing that his wife loved him unconditionally. He will be greatly missed.

“ We were in the 1943 NBH class and Joe was a great guy. He was smart, grntlemanly, and nice to know. We were also in St. Mary's together. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.
