“ To my cousins and there families. Sometimes you just really don't know what to put down in words. There is just so much to say about your mom, grandma, great grandma and my aunt that you could write a book. I am so grateful that she was a part of my life. The many trips down to see her and Uncle Hank with my parents at New Years will be long remembered. The fun times will go on for her now that she has moved on.

*Love your nephew and cousin Dan Brock
Bonnie sends the same as well.*

“ Howard, Ken and family, I would like to extend our heart felt condolences for the loss of both parents, and in such a short time frame. They say only 2% of seniors reach their 90th birthday and it looks like both Joyce and Henry were blessed to do so. Please know that the Dyson family will be in our thoughts and prayers.
