

JuCoby T. Powell

June 10, 2018

JuCoby T. Powell, 38, peacefully passed away Sunday June 10, 2018. Born in Boston, he lived most his life in CT. He finished his education by getting his high school diploma. He became known as a “Jack of all trades” making him a hard worker. He enjoyed cooking and making his famous fried Oreo cookies. How do you describe our son, our dad, our brother, our uncle, our friend? As a loving, caring, always listening without impartiality, never judgemental. He just loved everyone and wanted to be helpful to all. To wrap it all up we will miss our tall, jolly giant.

JuCoby leaves behind his children Elijah, Azayah, Julius, Jenessa and Jessica, who is the loving mother of his children. A mother, Denise, a father, Hillary, a dad, Carlton and sister, Latisia. He also leaves behind Lucky, Janine, Andre, Dondi, LaChina, Hillary, Danon, Felicia, DeAndre, Sonya, Scott and his cousin, Guanna, who was his talking buddy. His best friend whom he loved, Theresa and her children. He has so many relatives he loved, just too many to name. But just remember, not being mentioned does not mean you're not loved.

“ To the Family:

It is so sad hearing about JuCoby's passing away. May we all be comforted knowing that God in heaven is there and wants to hlep us get through this painful time we are going through (Ps 34:18, 19).

“ My heart was broken again when I heard of your passing. Going to miss you coming by and checking on me since Jordans's passing that meant so much to me and spoke volumes of who you were. The only peace is knowing you are now w your boys causing havoc !! 🙏😊 To your family you are in my prayers. Forever in my heart
