

Judith (Rasmussen) Hedenberg

January 9, 1946 - March 4, 2026

Judith “Judy” (Rasmussen) Hedenberg, 80, of Southington, widow of David Hedenberg, passed away Wednesday (March 4, 2026) at Jerome Home in New Britain. A native and longtime New Britain resident, Judy was a graduate of Pulaski High School, Class of 1964, lived in Farmington until moving to Southington in 2008. She was a longtime employee of American Savings Bank in Downtown New Britain until becoming an Administrative Assistant at UConn Medical Center in the Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Academic Office. In her later years, Judy was very involved with Southington Community Services and the Southington Elk’s Lodge # 1669. Judy’s greatest happiness came from being helpful to those around her. Always optimistic, she faced each day positively and found much joy in the companionship of family and friends.

Surviving are two daughters, Laura Jarvis and her husband Kenneth of Madison; and Janet Scalise and her husband Jonathan of Southington; a sister, Joyce Fisher and her husband Christopher of Oxford; The joys of her life, her six grandchildren, Isabella, Lily, Sofia and Olivia Scalise, and Kaitlin and Alexander Jarvis; and her nieces and nephews, Karen, Susan, Gregory, Jennifer and Todd. Judy’s family wishes to extend gratitude to Dr. Kevin Watson, Dr. Brian Byrne, The Hartford Healthcare Cancer Center, the Jerome Home and the Hartford Healthcare Hospice for their loving care.

“ *My heart goes out to Judy family. We shared beautiful talks at the Southington Community Services while working in the Closet together. I am so happy that I became a friend to Judy in my life. We were supposed to have lunch when I returned from vacation. I will surely miss a special friend 🥹 God Bless

“ My sympathy to you all. Judy and I shared many a meal, lots of good times with all our friends at the Elks, and many hours donating our time at Community Services. She will be missed by so many of us. May she rest in peace. All of us at Spring Lake send our love and sympathy to all of you. Rest in peace Judy.
