“ There are very few people I remember, in my life, that I could depend on...Mom B was one of those. From the beginning of Jim's & my relationship, she inspired me. She helped me with my shorthand, she wrote us when we were stationed and lonely away from home. Often those letters included a small amount of money which would pull us through many a rough time. She had six kids, but somehow managed to fit me in too. I am grateful to have known her and learned from her. I love you mom. Alice
