“ Karen was a friend I met years ago through Marijayne and we talked so many times. We were so happy when she bought her house in New Britain and she loved her privacy. I will miss our phone conversations. Little did I know her nephew Shane was good friends with my grandchildren and they all went to school together. God Bless you Rest in peace. Helen

“ I was one of many travel companions of Karen. We always shared a lot of laughter when on an excursion and were fortunate to like the same scenery and shared similar adventurous natures. Although, she in many ways was much braver than I. Karen had a great many long time friends and she was beloved to them. My association with Karen was about 20 plus yrs., most of her best friendships were from early school yrs. High school and college, I think that says something about a person. A loving and giving woman with blue blue eyes.

As you said Karen, "enjoy every journey". You too Karen Ellison, I love you and will miss.

Rest In Peace my dear friend.

... "and flights of ANGELS took you home".

Your South American travel buddy.
