“ Uncle Blair was special to me for many reasons. I admired his dedication to his wife and family. He was a reliable steadfast man of integrity. He was the lifelong partner of my beloved Aunty Margy. She told me she hoped to pass away first because she would not want to live without him. He was blessed to have such a wonderful family and a life long enough to see three of his great grandchildren born. I hope that what we are taught is true and he is up in heaven finally reunited with his Peg.

“ I am sad to hear from Cara about the loss of your father/grandfather. Blair was very special and was very kind to me. I enjoyed the times we were together and he would tell me about all the cars he had owned in his lifetime.
