“ My sincerest and deepest condolences to the whole family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this difficult time. I would like to think that, although its a time to mourn, it is more importantly a time to celebrate such a wonderful life and the happy memories. I will always remember Leo as the joker. Any time you walked in the room and Leo was there he made you laugh till no end. May you all find the peace that you need to see you through this difficult time.
