“ Diane & Kate,

Lee was a gracious lady who looked forward to family activities. We fondly remember how she kept pace with the two of you & Bill, and our family as we experienced Washington D.C.

She hustled with all of us from one monument to another and she never fell behind. Her enthusiasm to take in every historical place inspired us to keep going until we were all exhausted.

We remember Lee as a classy woman who is now riding in a golf cart with Nick in a better place.

We share your and your family's grief for the passing of such a nice person.
