“ Losing you was the hardest part of my life! You were my best friend and always will be. I don't know how to function sometimes when I think of you and how much I miss you so dearly!!!! Id give anything to kiss your cheek one more time. Now you can sleep mommy with no pain or discomfort. Wish I was holding you in my arms. I'll see you again one day. I love you mommy, Love, Beanie

“ Hugs to all the Carlson family for the loss of a mom, a sister an aunt and a friend. Amazing to remember Leslie for so long with my friendship with both sisters Lori and Lynn. Growing up they all felt like family, even little brother Kent. God bless you Leslie, Lori is up there to welcome you. Rest easy now Leslie.

“ I went to school with Leslie and Lynn all through school. I remember being a bit shocked to find out they were sisters. They were so opposite. But having my own girls in the same grade one older than the other I realize how different they can be. Both were kind, although this is about Leslie. I remember her as being kind and a loyal friend. Funny thing is I found out just a few months ago, that my husband's cousin is related to the Carlson family. I tried reaching out to Leslie, in hopes of sharing that news never knowing she was sick. With that being said, I am so very sorry for the loss of such a loving and kind sister, Mom, Grandma, along with the many other titles she held. Praying and sending hugs and love to you all. A beautiful lady, gone too soon. 💔😭🌟🙏😊❤️

“ Sending each and everyone of you so much love and prayers at this difficult time. Leslie was one of hardest working moms I have ever met. Her love for her children, grandchildren and siblings, nieces and nephews and her entire family and friends was beyond words. heaven has a new Angel
