“ I have been thinking about Lillian and her son Paul this month. My brother Brian and Paul were best friends during Middle School. We lived near the Gribauskas. Brian often would try to get his younger brother, me, from tagging along. Paul would stop him because he enjoyed me tagging along. I remember enjoying Lillian's fish tank which led me to decades of aquariums. Both Lillian and Paul were always kind to me. I moved to California in 1993. I ran into Paul just before the move. We had an amazing conversation that I have replayed many times. I was glad to hear that Lillian had retired and was doing well. It's wonderful to see a beautiful picture of her on this page.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy that goes out to all Lillian's extended family; grandchildren and great grandchildren and their families. She was a strong, independent, and proud woman who lived life to the fullest. She had a sharp mind and wit and even sent me jokes through e-mail on her computer...imagine -learning Windows Vista at 85 years old -God Bless Her! Lil put everyone's needs before her own. Anyone would be proud to call her "mom," "grandma," or "great grandma." I truly will miss you Lil
