“ I can not begin to say just how much my grandmother, Lillian Jones, had done for me. Even at times when I felt the weight of the world seemed to be coming down on me, she always, always comforted me with open arms. She was always willing to help me whether it being a literature assignment or just a kind word or two. She never looked to me as a failure even when inside I sometimes felt like one. My grandmother was truly one in a million and it was a blessing to have her in our lives. I will miss her dearly and I thank her for all that she has done for our family...

*My grandma never believed n saying, "good-bye" because good-bye is forever. Instead, she would say, "so long"...
So, so long grandma...I'll see you when I get there...I love you.*

*With so much love,
Your granddaughter,
Shonta'e*

“ May you draw strength from knowing that others are in this with you, standing beside you with reassurance and love. Know that your mother, wife, grandmother and most of all your best friend is in a better place where she is free from pain, and at peace. She will remain forever in the hearts of those who loved her and will always be just a thought away. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

*Love,
Joyce, Wayne, Nicole, Brian and Justin*

“ "Auntie Lillian" is actually my first cousin as our mothers are sisters. Yet; when my mother bore me 40 years ago, Auntie Lil was already married to Uncle Bill and raising a family of their own. Being that Auntie Lil was much older than me, I called her "Auntie" as a little girl out of respect, and as I grew up raising children of my own, I still called her "Auntie" out of love. I will always hold Auntie Lillian close in my heart as she created a lot of my most "happiest childhood memories" by letting me spend countless weekends and vacations with her, Uncle Bill, Little Billie, Charise, Donna, and Lisa. I still remember the surprise birthday party she gave me with cake and presents too. I was an only child and never had any brothers or sisters, and Auntie Lil tirelessly included me into the family gatherings as often as she could. Not only did her generosity give me something to look forward to every weekend my world would just end if I couldn't get to Auntie Lil's house, her love gave me a sense of acceptance as I was a shy-overweight little girl when I was growing up. Sadly and regretably I didn't visit with Auntie Lil much as I grew older, yet; occassionally she still managed to include me and my family at family gatherings that she still continued to have at the house. I hope Auntie Lillian knows I will always hold her near and dear to my heart and I am so grateful for the happy memories that she gave me as a child to last my lifetime.-With all my love Auntie Lillian, Your loving niece-Robin
