

Lillian Bianca Spurvey

October 13, 2005

Lillian Bianca Spurvey, of Kensington, wife of Everett J.F. Spurvey, died Thursday October 13, 2005 at New Britain General Hospital. Born in New Britain, daughter of the late Corrado and Mary Formica Bianca, they moved to Kensington in 1972. She attended New Britain High School and married her husband Everett on March 4, 1946 at St. Ann's Church in New Britain. Lillian worked for the New Britain Police Department and Fafnir Bearing Company as a secretary before opening her bridal shop, The Cotillion in New Britain. She later owned and operated the French Corset Shop in Yalesville for twenty years, retiring in 1993.

Besides Everett, her husband of fifty nine years, she leaves her dear sister Lena Proietti of West Hartford and brother, Anthony T. Bianca, Sr. of New Britain and her sister-in-law, Mary Bianca of Kensington. She also leaves several nieces , nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews. Lillian was predeceased by two brothers, James and Paul Bianca; her sister Elizabeth Kosswig; a sister-in-law Helen Bianca; and a brother-in-law, Robert Kosswig.

A very warm and special thank you to nephew Robert Kosswig and her nieces Margo Wright and Pamela Bianca who have given their time, help and compassion in her hours of need. Also a special thank you to her niece, Marilyn LaBonte. A very special thank you to her nurses Alice Broisman, Barbara McCoid and Michelle for all their help and care they gave her.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held privately at St. Paul's Church in Kensington. There are no calling hours. Burial will be in Saint Mary Cemetery, New Britain, at the convenience of the family. Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting the family with arrangements. Memorial donations may be made to the Helen T. Bianca Nursing Scholarship Fund, c/o Greater New Britain Foundation for Public Giving, 74 Vine Street, New Britain, CT 06052.
