She was a self-taught weaver and a woman who appreciated color and fabric. To learn, she borrowed weaving books from the New Britain Public Library. Therefore, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the New Britain Public Library, 20 High Street, New Britain, CT 06051. Carlson Funeral Home is assisting with arrangements. “ Losing a parent is one of life's challenges and my heart goes out to Betty, Noreen, Danny, and Patricia, their spouses, and many grandchildren-all of whom Aunt Lillian was incredibly proud of.

My favorite story, shared by Aunt Lillian and my Dad was Aunt Lillian birth. No baby showers, no gender reveal parties. My Dad got up one morning to find a baby next to the stove in the kitchen while his Mom made breakfast for all, just like she always did! There was Lillian, quietly welcomed into her family who loved her always!

The minister reminded us all of the party line-kind of like an old fashioned intercom- where Lillian and Grandma could just pick up the phone and talk to one another, in Swedish of course! What a nice memory!

“ My condolences to the entire Stitham family, especially to Betty, Noreen, Dan, and Patricia.
Your Mother, my Godmother would always check in with me this time of the year due to the Holidays and also because of my birthday month, January. She would always reminisce about that and remark that she was just 20 years old. That is a fond memory of your Mom for me.
