“ Dear Shelby, I am so sorry for your loss. I know that you & your cousin were very close. You did so much for her while she was here on earth. You can feel good about that. She is a peace now. God bless you. Love, Carol

“ In 1952, upon graduation from high school, I worked with Lynn for a brief period. Since the position I was hired for would not be immediately available, Lynn encouraged me to look for a situation better suited to my qualifications, interests and ambition. Lynn was very instrumental in "reading me" and directing me to better avenues which allowed a successful varied career interspersed with much personal travel. Altho we exchanged Holiday greetings for some time, we lost touch over the years. But, Lynn's sincerity, beauty, pride and professionalism will always be in my thoughts. Sorry for your loss.
