“ I met you a few years ago. You were a great woman whose love for your children was unconditional. I know you are at peace now. My prayers go out to your family, Joan and Monika. Watch over them, I know you will.

“ Lori,
It was a pleasure being your pastor for the time you spent at Saint James. I thank God he chose me to minister to you.
May God bless your soul.

“ I am still in shock. I am so grateful that we had the chance to reconnect this past month. I talked to you on Wed and had plans to get together in May for my Mom's birthday and Mother's Day. I know you are at peace and reunited with your Mom, Grandma and Grandpa. We all love you. Rest in peace.

“ I never would have imagined one week later I'd be signing a memorial for Lori when we were just together last weekend 4/13 in the Westfarm Mall together laughing as I pushed her through the mall. Lori was a wonderful woman and great friend to my family and my mom. She cared and loved both my mom and grandmom. I am thankful our family got to spend one last day with her. She may be gone, but certainly not forgotten.
