

Lorraine (Buchholz) Adamson

January 25, 1935 - February 21, 2024

Lorraine (Buchholz) Adamson, 89, of Farmington, widow of John F. Adamson, passed away Wednesday (February 21, 2024) at Hartford Hospital. Born in New Britain, Lorraine attended Plainville High School and has been a Farmington resident for over 30 years. She worked for a longtime at Appell Drug Store in Plainville and then at Town and Country Club in Hartford until her retirement in 2000. Lorraine was a life-long member of St. John's Lutheran Church in New Britain. She was very active in church affairs, serving as a church council member and on various committees as well as singing in the choir.

Surviving are two sons, Richard Adamson of Southington; and Scott Adamson of Plainville; a daughter, Nancy Boucher and her husband Paul of Plainville; a sister-in-law, Geraldine Buchholz of Mystic; two grandchildren, Sarah Adamson and her partner Shawn Neary of Plainville; and Marc Boucher of Plainville; several nieces and nephews. Besides her husband John, she was predeceased by two brothers, Edward and Robert Buchholz.

My deepest sympathy to the family of Lorraine... I, and also my Mom, Claire Meyer, always enjoyed talking w/her at church functions & WELCA (Women of the Evangelical Lutheran Church Association) meetings at St. John's. She was extremely intelligent and I loved talking about her cat, bears on her deck and also walking health, to maintain fitness and independence. We have kind memories of Lorraine... She was a good Christian. May she rest in Heaven, until the day we meet again, as we believe in our hearts. And there, you will also find my mother, who slipped from us, into Heaven, late December 2022. Peace
