“ *Donna & Rick,
I remember your Mom when I walked Chika, she was always cheery, & a great conversationalist. She's now joined your Dad in a much happier place. God Bless you both & your family.*

*Your Neighbor,
Pat*

“ I worked with Lorraine at Amodio. She was a sweet lady. I remember when she used to bring in handmade Christmas decor from one of the organizations she belonged to. I think of her every year when I take out the decorations I bought from her. I also remember her getting into the Halloween spirit with a few of us and dressing up in costume for the office. She had a good heart. God Bless her! My sympathy goes out to her family.
