“ In Memory of "Uncle Lou"

*He traveled down many roads of life's highways,
A simple life he led from day to day.
Life's little joys gave him so much pleasure,
and he loved you all without measure.
Many a person would call him their friend.
Because a helping hand he would always lend..
He worked hard all his life with not much money to spend,
but he had dreams and aspirations to the end.
He is in Heaven now since Jesus took his hand.
His life completed, like hourglass sand.
You never know from day to day
When someone you love will be taken away,
But God has his reasons that you try to understand...
and you know that "Uncle Lou" is in God's hands.
His legacy isn't riches or possessions,
or things that money can buy.
It's the way he lived and the lives he touched...
He was a very special guy!*

*Dear Richard & Lucy & Janet & family..I was sad to hear about "Uncle Lou", and I wil surely always miss him at work..I guess every time time I make a smiley face on your dinners, I'll see his face & his smile...I send you my most sincere condolences, and you'll be in my prayers. Sincerely,
Sharon*
