

Louise A. Kaestle

July 20, 1932 - March 27, 2024

Louise Kaestle, 91, wife of the late John A. Kaestle, passed away Wednesday March 27, 2024 at Chestelm Health & Rehabilitation Center in Moodus. Born in Rochester, New York to William and Beatrice House, she was a longtime Newington resident and more recently, a resident of Avery Heights in Hartford. Louise received a bachelor's degree from Russell Sage College in Troy, NY, where she met the love of her life, John. After raising her four children, Louise went back to school and earned a Master of Science Degree in 1979 from Central Connecticut State University. Louise worked as a family therapist for the Klingberg Family Center and in private practice for many years. She was an active member of the YWCA in New Britain, serving as its president as well as being a long-time member of South Church in New Britain.

Louise leaves three sons, John M. Kaestle and his wife Denise of Mercer Island, WA, Peter W. Kaestle and his wife Sandra of Seattle, WA, and Philip A. Kaestle and his wife Jacquelyn of Delray Beach, FL; and a daughter, Karen L. Kaestle and her husband James Myslik of Chester, CT; nine grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held the 31st of May at 11:00 am at South Church 90 Main Street New Britain, CT. All are welcome with reception to follow. Private burial will be in the church memorial garden. There are no calling hours. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may made to Doctors Without Borders. Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain, is assisting the family with arrangements. Please share a memory or note of sympathy with the family at

“ I fondly remember Lee Kaestle. She was a community leader that I looked up to and admired. I worked with Lee at the NB YWCA for quite a few years. She was a mentor and a quiet leader. I was honored to follow in her footsteps when I stepped into the Presidency after Lee.

My condolences to her whole family and especially to her daughter Karen and her husband Jim as we share being active parishioners of St John Essex. Pauline Kezer
